MEDIA RELEASE

NEW CIO AT BELVÉDÈRE ASSET MANAGEMENT

Thomas Heller will become new Chief Investment Officer (CIO) and Member of the Executive Board at Belvédère Asset Management AG as of 1 April 2022.

Thomas Heller, 55, studied economics at the University of Zurich and is a certified financial analyst and asset manager. With extensive experience in the financial industry, he is acknowledged as an accomplished and distinguished investment authority with extensive expertise in research and asset management. He is currently Head of Research and CIO at Schwyzer Kantonalbank.

«Belvédère is an excellently positioned Swiss asset management boutique. I look forward to being soon actively involved in shaping the development of the company and I see this as a great opportunity and an exciting new challenge,» says Thomas Heller about his new role.

The Board of Directors is delighted about this appointment: «Thomas Heller is a well-respected authority with an acknowledged track record as CIO. We are confident that his extensive knowledge will add great value for our customers,» says Dr Florian Marxer, Chairman of the Board of Directors.

The Executive Board currently consists of Giorgio Saraco (CEO) and Thomas Fischli (Head of Client Services | Deputy CEO) and will be expanded with the appointment of Thomas Heller (subject to formal approval by FINMA).

Belvédère Asset Management AG is supervised by FINMA and is headquartered in Glarus, with offices in Zurich and Pfäffikon SZ. It offers its private and institutional clients tailor-made solutions in the areas of asset management, family office and art collection management. Founded in 2001, the company is one of Switzerland's largest independent asset managers, with more than 35 employees and over CHF 3.0 billion in assets under management.
